ITALIAN LANGUAGE LEVEL 203

Language of Instruction: Italian

Contact Hours*: 50

Total Hours of Student Engagement (THSE) in all course activities*: 150

SIENA, ITALY

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Building on skills learned at prior levels, the Ital 203 course is designed to develop language proficiency. The students will be taught not only the linguistic system, but will also be given strategies and techniques that facilitate the learning process.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Develop Italian Language skill proficiency.

Connect grammatical theory with the practical use of the language.

Specific skill acquisition outcomes:

- The student will become proficient with the usage of all the standard structures of the Italian language;
- They will also acquire confidence with its most sophisticated aspects and have the capacity to express their opinions and ideas using all the forms of subjunctives, if sentences, etc.
- The student will also be able to develop complex arguments both in written and oral form.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODOLOGY

The course utilizes an integrated communication method that puts the student at the center of the learning process in a cooperative relationship with the teacher. All of the didactic materials used throughout the course, such as textbooks and multimedia devices, are in Italian. Students will work in groups, be asked to take part in role-plays, write papers, dialogue with other students and the teacher, present and discuss articles in class. Constant interaction in Italian is the core of the learning process.

METHOD OF EVALUATION (GRADING)

Exams

Mid-Term written and oral exams

Final written and oral exams

Four Quizzes, two before midterm, two after midterm.

Evaluation Criteria

Participation	20%
Homework	10%
Quiz	16%
Mid-Term	24% (12% Written, 12% Oral)
Final Exam	30% (15% Written, 15% Oral)

Absence Policy

If you require accommodations, please contact the site-director, Silvia Minucci, at the beginning of the term. Testing accommodations such as extra time or an alternative testing location must be approved by the site-director at least two weeks before the exam.

Attendance is very important for the continuity of class activities and it is mandatory. There will be no unexcused absences, except in the case of illness with written doctor's certificate.

1st absence - student will be warned.

2nd absence - student will be warned and requested extra assignments

3rd and 4th absences - student will receive a lower grade – a deduction of 4 % for each absence.

5 or more absences - student cannot receive a passing grade and must formally withdraw from the course, except in the case of doctor certified illness.

Quizzes cannot be missed, but IF you miss it (even if it's your 1st absence) you will receive 0 on the quiz.

Final exams cannot be taken early or postponed.

Quizzes, exams and projects cannot be rescheduled.

Consistently late arrival or early departure may affect your attendance grade, at your instructor's discretion.

Class Participation

Students are expected to actively participate and contribute to class discussion. Participation grade requires more preparation and contribution, and if a student is not in class he/she is not contributing or receiving the inputs of his/her classmates and teacher.

Class participation will count for 25%.

Homework

Please do all the exercises assigned every day. We will do many of these exercises together in class. Lack of preparation will significantly lower your grade.

Office hours: After class or by appointment

Academic Misconduct

The University Student Conduct Code (available at conduct.uoregon.edu) defines academic misconduct. Students are prohibited from committing or attempting to commit any act that constitutes academic misconduct. By way of example, students should not give or receive (or attempt to give or receive) unauthorized help on assignments or examinations without express permission from the instructor. Students should properly acknowledge and document all sources of information (e.g. quotations, paraphrases, ideas) and use only the sources and resources authorized by the instructor. If there is any question about whether an act constitutes academic misconduct, it is the students' obligation to clarify the question with the instructor before committing or attempting to commit the act. Additional information about a common form of academic misconduct, plagiarism, is available at <https://researchguides.uoregon.edu/citing-plagiarism>.

Generative AI Course Policy

Students may not use GenAI tools in this course to produce course materials or assignments in whole or in part. All work you submit for this course toward completion of course requirements must be your own original work done specifically for this course and without substantive assistance from others, including GenAI. Work you've completed for previous courses or are developing for other courses this term also should not be submitted for this course.

Accessible Education

The University of Oregon and I are dedicated to fostering inclusive learning environments for all students and welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. The Accessible Education Center (AEC) assists students with disabilities in reducing campus-wide and classroom-related barriers. If you have or think you have a disability and experience academic barriers, please contact the AEC to discuss appropriate accommodations or support. Visit 360 Oregon Hall or aec.uoregon.edu for more information. You can contact AEC at 541-346-1155 or via email at uoaec@uoregon.edu.

Pregnancy Modifications. Pregnant and parenting students are eligible for academic and work modifications related to pregnancy, childbirth, loss of pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, lactation, and related medical conditions. To request pregnancy-related modifications, students should complete the Request for Pregnancy Modifications form on the OICRC website. OICRC coordinates academic and other modifications for pregnant and parenting students to ensure students can continue to access their education and university programs and activities.
